MOTION TO LIMIT NOTICE OF
MOTION TO APPROVE EXPENSES FOR WEBSITE NOTICING

Elderkin & Pirnie P.L.C, counsel for the Chapter 7 Trustee, respectfully requests this Court limit the notice of Trustee's Motion To Approve Expenses for Website Noticing that provided to those entities on the “unofficial service list, “ and states:

1. Simultaneously herewith, Trustee has filed a Motion to Approve Expenses for Website Noticing.
2. Under applicable rules, notice of an objection bar-date of the Motion should be issued to all creditors and parties-in-interest.
3. The matrix in this case consists of roughly 50 pages, with each page compromising of approximately 27 names. In other words, a total of approximately 1,350 entities will have to be notified.
4. The costs of postage alone to notice 1,350 will be $459.00 plus the staff time making the copies and stuffing the envelopes.
5. In light of the costs and burden of noticing 1,350 entities, notice of an objection bar-date relative to the Motion should be limited only to those entities who have appeared via counsel and whose names and addresses are being used by the Chapter 7 Trustee and other parties in this case, more or less as an “unofficial service list.” Additionally, the notice of the motion and bar-date for objections should be supplied to Mr. Dan Hooper, who has agreed to post such notices on a website for members pursuant to the Court’s prior requests.

WHEREFORE, Trustee respectfully requests that this Court enter an order authorizing it to issue notice of an objection bar-date for the Application to only those entities on the “unofficial service list, “ and to have such notice of objection bar-date posted upon the members website by Mr. Dan Hooper, and granting such further relief as this Court deems equitable and just.
